

THE Situational Leadership[®] MODEL

A Practical, Repeatable Framework

The Situational Leadership[®] Model equips leaders with the skills to match their behaviors with the performance needs of the individual or group that they are attempting to influence. Based on two fundamental research questions: “What is the best leadership style?” and “What are the driving forces behind human motivation?” the Situational Leadership[®] Model focuses on the relationship between leaders and followers and provides a framework to analyze each situation depending on the Performance Readiness[®] Level that a follower exhibits in performing a specific task. The leader then responds with the necessary amounts of supportive behavior and directive behavior to advance development.

Core Competencies

- ☑ Diagnose an individual's Performance Readiness[®] to complete a specific task.
- ☑ Adapt leader behavior based on the diagnosis.
- ☑ Communicate an influence approach in a manner that followers can both understand and accept.
- ☑ Advance by managing the movement toward higher performance.

Create and Sustain a High-Performing Organization.

Situational Leaders objectively assess performance based on the specific task and the performance behaviors of the follower. The Situational Leadership® Model provides leaders with the tools to skillfully navigate the demands of an increasingly diverse workforce and evolving global marketplace.
